

Job opening at Centerville Library - Head of Youth Services

The Centerville Public Library is busting at the seams with children! From 2010 to 2011, children's circulation has doubled and program attendance has tripled. We are looking for the next visionary person to bring outstanding service and programs to build on the excitement in our community.

Responsibilities include:

- Customer service to patrons.
- Collection development of Youth Services materials.
- Programming for youth and families.
- Promote Youth Services activities with flyers, ads, and digital means.
- Conduct story times for the community and class visits.
- Coordinate and supervise Youth Services staff (teen librarian and children's assistant).
- Design displays and decorations for Youth Services area.
- Conduct Summer Reading Program.
- Represent the library at local community and school events.

A bachelor's degree is required, with preference given to a person who has a master's in library science.

This position is 30 hours per week, Monday-Friday, including one evening. Benefits include a flexible paid-time-off plan and paid holidays.

Pay range - $12.50 to $15.50 per hour

Position available February 20, 2012

Interested candidates may submit a resume, three references, and cover letter at the library, or email these items to the director, Beth Treaster, at btreaster@centervillelibrary.info.
